NARRATIVE:

Homero Antillon is a documented gang member with an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 18. His convictions include ammunition violation, domestic violence with injury, assault, identity theft, battery, transportation of controlled substances for sales, hit and run property damage, grand theft, first degree burglary, possession of dangerous weapons, exhibiting a firearm, fraudulent checks, receiving stolen property, possession of drug paraphernalia, DUI with prior, possession of controlled substances- use of PCP, false personation and possession of controlled substances. He has served multiple prison terms, the longest being a 4 year term for domestic violence with injury. Antillon was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on August 1, 2016. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in March 2016 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Antillon qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for domestic violence with injury is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His criminal history, gang member status and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
